Who are we?

Well, since you asked, we're ESPRA! This beautiful acronym stands for "Ellicottville Students Preserving the Reading of America" and, guess what, that's what we do! ESPRA is a group of bibliophiles intent on making the world a better place. As a club, we volunteer across the area for places like the Teacher's Desk, Hospice, and more. We also adventure into the wild, taking field trips to the Western New York Book Art Center, the Buffalo Public Library, museums, antique book shops, and, of course, Barnes & Noble. If you thought that was too good to be true, ESPRA also hosts school-famous potlucks, facilitates a book club, and is just full of the best people EVER!

Q: Where did the vampire college student go clothes shopping?

A: Forever 21

Q: How much money does a skunk have?

A: One scent.

Q: Why did the crab never share?

A: Because he's shellfish.

Q: What vegetables do librarians like?

A: Quiet peas.

Did you hear about the monkeys who shared an Amazon account? They were Prime mates.

Never trust math teachers who use graph paper. They're always plotting something.

Q: Why didn't the sun go to college?

A: Because it already had a million degrees.

Q: Why is Cinderella so bad at soccer?

A: Because she always runs away from the ball.

Don't use "beef stew" as a computer password. It's not stroganoff.
